SUBJECT: As you know, the House Ways and Means Committee is presently holding general tax reform hearings on a broad range of issues. We have been keeping track of the proposal to tax overseas allowances of Federal employees. The Committee took this question up today (1 October). We will let you know as soon as we find out the up-shot. Whatever conclusion the Committee reaches will be embodied in legislation which they are intending to draft upon concluding these tax reform hearings.

mark up 21st Oct House
